

Ch. 1 Geography-Need to Know Words

Across

3. A unit used by geographers to measure location on maps.
5. a representation of the Earth's rounded surface on a flat piece of paper.
6. A round ball that shows the Earth in a smaller size.
7. These lines of longitude run through the North and South poles.
8. the size of an area on a map as compared with the area's actual size.
12. An imaginary line that circles the Earth from north to south.
13. An invisible line that forms an east-west circle around the Earth.
14. A region of flat land.

Down

1. The symbols that appear on a map are explained in the legend or.
2. 0 degrees longitude
4. a map feature that usually shows the four cardinal directions.
6. The study of the earth and its people.
9. These lines of latitude never meet.
10. 0 degrees latitude
11. When a landmass looks larger on a map than it does on the globe.